TOP NEWS OF THE MONTH

LIVESTOCK REMINDERS

Students taking an animal to the Glenn County Fair must complete YQCA! Hamilton City FFA will be completing the in person led training on January 29th at our FFA meeting. Students must be registered and have completed the pretest by January 22nd. Cost for the in-person training is $3 and must be paid online with registration. Details are posted in the FFA Google Classroom. If for some reason you are missing this meeting, you must bring your completed 2024 certificate to Mrs. Thorpe by January 22nd.

Steers and Heifers must be tagged-in by January 15th. Lambs, goats, and hogs need to be tagged by an advisor. Please communicate if your animal is at your house and needs to be tagged. We want to complete all tagging by March 5th in order to get paperwork submitted. Dairy heifer Form B and genomic tissue samples due March 1st.

MFE AND ALA

Maddy Culp, Jessie Whitlock, Aubree Eddy, Jackson Edson, Ilan Davis, Tyler Lepp, and Julia Simson.

Students attending the Made for Excellence and Advanced Leadership Academy have changed to the Sonoma conference January 14th-15th in order to not conflict with homecoming. It will be held at the Double Tree.

Students will depart Hamilton High Sunday morning at 8:00 and will return around 4:00 Monday. Please wear official dress. There will be a conference social. Please pack one casual, school appropriate, outfit. During conference on Monday students will wear the conference t-shirt. Please bring nice jeans to wear with the t-shirt.

AG AWARENESS DAY

Ag Awareness Day will be held February 6th on the school farm. 8th grade students will visit our school farm to learn about agriculture. Students may help by designing and working an educational booth or serving as a tour guide. Please reach out to the student chairs Hanne, Case, or Mylie and attend the planning meeting. More information will be provided in the weekly ag reminders. Students working the event need to wear an FFA t-shirt or polo. Any students needing supplies for their booth need to let Hanne know prior to February 1st to get them on the shopping list.
